EXHIBIT G

Standard Ballot District Governor, First Vice District Governor & Second Vice District Governor Elections

Sample #1: Ballot where there are two candidates.

Instructions: Clearly indicate your vote by placing an appropriate symbol next to the name of the Candidate you are casting your vote for.

Position	Name	Vote
Second Vice District Governor
	Candidate A	X
	Candidate B

Sample #2: Ballot where there is only one candidate.

Instructions: Clearly indicate your vote by placing an appropriate symbol in the box indicating a yes or a no vote for the Candidate.

Position	Name	Yes	No
District Governor
	Candidate A	X

Sample #3: Ballot where there are three or more Candidates:

(Note: there are a few different options when there is more than one Candidate. If time permits, you may have the voter indicate their selection next to the Candidate they wish to vote for. If no Candidate receives a majority of the votes, then the Candidate with the lowest amount of votes is dropped off the ballot and another vote is taken (the ballot would look like Sample #1 above). This process would continue until a Candidate receives the required number of votes. As most Districts do not have the time to conduct such a lengthy process, the option of Preferential Voting allows the voter to complete one ballot. Following is an example of a Preferential Voting Ballot):

Please note that the District should indicate the appropriate symbol to use or approved stamp provided to all voters. In addition, a Candidate must receive a majority of affirmative votes to move forward. If there is a tie between a yes and no vote, the Candidate would not have received the required number of votes to be elected and it would result in a vacancy.

Instructions: Indicate your preference by clearly marking next to each Candidate’s name a number (1,2,3, or 4) indicating your preference in the order in which you would elect the Candidate (i.e., 1 representing highest preference, 2 – next preference etc).

Position	Name	Preference Rank
Second Vice District Governor
	Candidate A	4
	Candidate B	2
	Candidate C	1
	Candidate D	3

Rules for Preferential Voting:

1. On the preferential ballot – for each office to be filled the voter is asked to indicate the order in which he prefers all the Candidates, placing the numeral 1 beside his first preference, the numeral 2 beside his second preference and so on for every possible choice.
2. In counting the votes for a given office, the ballots are arranged in piles according to the indicated first preferences – one pile for each Candidate.
3. The number of ballots in each pile is then recorded for the tellers’ report. These piles remain identified with the names of the same Candidates throughout the counting procedure until all but one are eliminated as described below.
4. If more than half of the ballots show one Candidate indicated as first choice, that choice has a majority in the ordinary sense and the Candidate is elected. But if there is no such majority, Candidates are eliminated one by one, beginning with the least popular, until one prevails as follows:
 - a. The ballots in the thinnest pile – that is, those containing the name designated as first choice by the fewest number of voters – are redistributed into the other piles according to the names marked as second choice on these ballots.
 - b. The number of ballots in each remaining pile after this distribution is again recorded.
 - c. If more than half of the ballots are now in one pile, that Candidate is elected, If not, the next least popular candidate is similarly eliminated by taking the thinnest remaining pile and redistributing its ballots according to their second choices into the other piles, except that, if the name eliminated in the last distribution is indicated as second choice on a ballot, that ballot is placed according to its third choice.
 - d. Again the number of ballots in each existing pile is recorded and if necessary, the process is repeated – by redistributing each time the ballots in the thinnest remaining pile, according to the marked second choice or most-preferred choice among those not yet eliminated – until one pile contains more than half of the ballots, the result being thereby determined.
 - e. The tellers’ report consists of a table listing all Candidates with the number of ballots that were in each pile after each successive distribution.
5. If a ballot having one or more names not marked with any numeral comes up for placement at any stage of the counting and all of its marked names have been eliminated, it should not be placed in any pile, but should be set aside.

6. If at any point two or more Candidates are tied for the least popular position, the ballots in their piles are redistributed in a single step, all of the tied names being treated as eliminated.
7. In the event of a tie in the winning position – which would imply that the elimination process is continued until the ballots are reduced to two or more equal piles – the election should be resolved in favor of the Candidate that was strongest in terms of first choice (by referring to the record of the first distribution).

EXHIBIT H: Social Responsibility

The Lions Child Safe Policy has been on the Lions Australia website for some years. A lot of work has been done in putting this together by the MD EO and the Youth and Communities Committee. It is expected that all Districts and Clubs adopt this policy and work within the guidelines contained in the document.

Lions Australia members have a wealth of experience and are genuinely altruistic. Lions Australia at all times believe in the principle that the best interest of the child and young person is paramount. We are volunteers who are determined to do the best we can and be the best person we can be.

We run children and young person's programs in order to help them achieve goals they may not otherwise had available to them. In doing this we need to assure ourselves and others we act appropriately at all time when working with children and young people who due to their age are vulnerable.

We acknowledge child safety is every member's responsibility. As proud members of Lions Australia we are transparent in our actions and we therefore do not hesitate in upholding the principles as defined in this policy.

The Code of Conduct

This Code of Conduct should not take the place of your District or Club constitutions.

Our Code of Conduct represents the culture we strive to have, and it provides a shared understanding and expectation of the way we behave as individuals, towards each other, our members, clients, donors, partners and other supporters.

The Code supplements our legal obligations in areas such as Occupational Health and Safety, Equal Opportunity and Privacy. It applies to all Lions members 'staff and associate volunteers – we help our communities through service.

This code is intended to be used by members of Lions Clubs in determining what is right and proper in their actions and outlines the "Standards of Conduct" that apply to all members of Lions Clubs International. This code of conduct is to be read in conjunction with the Lions International Ethics and Purposes.

All members of Lions Clubs are "Volunteers" and are involved with Volunteer work for the benefit of the community. In the provision of these services, the public are entitled to expect that all members of Lions Clubs will:

- conduct themselves and discharge their responsibilities with professionalism and integrity;
- observe fairness and equity in their dealings with the public and other members;
- comply with, and be seen to act within the spirit and letter of the law; and
- act in the public interest and give priority to duties and obligations.

It is essential that members of Lions Clubs have a clear understanding of their role as "Volunteers" and of the standards expected of them whilst dealing with members of the community.

The District 201C1 Diversity and Inclusion Policy

This policy will provide the framework that the Lions 201C1 District will use to encourage diversity and inclusion across our district with respect to membership, service activities and donations and formally affirms Lions District 201C1 commitment to equality and diversity.

All Lions Clubs remain independent and although clubs are encouraged to adopt and follow this policy, it does not in itself give cause of action. This policy should be read in conjunction with:

- Relevant State and Federal Legislation
- The Lions Clubs Ethics and Purposes
- The Lions Australia Code of Conduct

ALWAYS to bear in mind my obligations as a citizen to my nation, my state and my community, and to give them my unswerving loyalty in word, act and deed. To give them freely of my time, labor, and means.

TO AID others by giving my sympathy to those in distress, my aid to the weak, and my substance to the needy.

TO BE CAREFUL with my criticism and liberal with my praise; to build up and not destroy.
